No worries. In the meantime, I could get a sharepoint site up and running so we can load charter, workplan, and q&a's. not sure if you have time for input to the docs I sent earlier -- if you don't we can wait until you get back in September. We've waited this long already, what's another couple weeks. We'll get there.

Hey team,

Attached are the edited Q & A's and also four proposed questions for the RLT. Let me know what you think. As soon as we nail this down, I'll speak with Karen H. about getting on the calendar with RLT. Guessing timing is a little off right now with the Gold King situation. Thx.
